

November 2016 Events:

PhD Career Skills: Building Your Professional Network

November 2, 2016, 11:30am – 1pm

3100 Hornbake Library, South Wing

As a PhD student at Maryland, you have many opportunities to expand your professional network. This interactive session will include tips and techniques you can use to build and maintain a set of colleagues and acquaintances who will be valuable assets to your career development during and after your graduate school experience.

For additional information about this event, contact Susan Martin at smart18@umd.edu.

Visual Arts Hiring Fair

November 2, 2016, 5pm - 7pm

3100 Hornbake Library, South Wing

Are you skilled in graphic design, video production or animation? If so, join us for the Visual Arts Hiring Fair, a reverse career fair in which employers will circulate around the room to meet students and see work samples. Open to all majors (with skills in graphic design, video production and/or animation).

For more information, please contact Kate Juhl at kjuhl@umd.edu.
