Diversity & Inclusion Meetup: How to Get Answers to the Hard Questions during Your Job Search

November 7, 2017, 4:30pm - 6:30pm
3100 Hornbake Library, South Wing

Are you a member of a diverse population or populations? Are you searching for an internship or job with concerns and some tough questions like any of the following? Will I find support and advancement opportunities despite my racial, ethnic, gender, disability, or sexual orientation identity? How do I know if it is a welcoming environment for my religious practice? Can I display pictures of me and my same-sex partner? How do I determine if I will get support with my DACA status? When should I disclose my disability status? If so, plan to meet with employers and hear their responses to these and other questions at this event!

Digital Media Boot Camp (Session Three of Three)

November 8, 2017, 4:00pm - 7:00pm
3100 Hornbake Library, South Wing

Topic One, 4:30 - 6 pm: Young Professionals Career Panel and Networking Event
Our final panel will highlight what it is like to be a young professional in the digital media industry. Hear from 5-6 employer panelists who are alum or recent graduates working in this field to provide key insight into digital media careers.
Topic Two, 6 - 7 pm: Digital Media Networking Event
Put your skills into action for our final event. Students who have participated in our 3 session Digital Media Boot Camp series will join employers for a final networking event to practice their skills and connect with employers. This is the perfect place to connect with someone hiring in this field. Whether you are looking for an internship or a full time job, meet these employers and practice all that you have learned.

* By registering to attend this event, you are agreeing to attend all three sessions
